

Feedback

We would like to thank some early visitors to the site for their positive and friendly support:

- Northamptonshire Record Office, archivist: "Congratulations on the website – the mix of advanced material, such as the manorial documents, and local history society elements, is excellent and innovative ... share your hope that over time this type of approach will encourage local historians to expand their horizons ... will certainly recommend the site to visitors here – it has much to offer to researchers generally."
- St John's College, Oxford, archivist: "Looks very impressive, best of luck with it."
- Community Landscape & Archaeology Survey Project (CLASP): "Your website is very valuable and fills a hole in local historical understanding. A link has now been placed onto the CLASP website."
- Professor Steve Hindle, Warwick University (Editor, Econ. Hist. Review): "Thanks for the link to your amazing website ... there are wonderful resources here, and it is all so beautifully presented."
